DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 10,15-21,23-26 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed 5/18/07 concerning the below rejected claims have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. The term 'beating' is broad and can read on many different types of operations, including that shown in Collins.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

Claims 7-9,11,14,28,29 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Collins. Figure 2 shows a conveyor feeding a web of material into a refiner consisting of confronting rolls.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

Claims 12,13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Collins. The manner in which the gap is formed would have been a design choice only once the use of a gap was known as in Collins.
